A study class

Is it weird to teach in the same school as a couple?

No the positive thing is that you always have the same holidays. We keep work and home separate.

What do you think of the phone ban?

It's positive because students talk more to each other.

Who are your favourite colleagues?

The teachers who also teach Latin: Ms. Morbé and Ms. De La Marche, also Ms. Paroissien.

The maths teachers: Mr. Wille, Mr. De Pauw. Also Mr. Gautier because he started at the same time as me.

Interview (Mr. Di Vita)

Who is your favourite class?

I don't have a favourite class. I know a few students but not a whole class. So it's hard to say.

Do you have any tips to make this school better?

I think it's already a good school. I also like the idea that if students don't like a less important subject, they can go to another subject that interests them more.

What do you think of the phone ban?

I think it's good, I see more pupils talking instead of on their mobiles.

What do you do of hobbies?

I play football, but due to an injury I haven't played for 4 weeks. I hope I can get back on it soon.

Do you have any Christmas plans?

Yes, me and my wife are inviting friends and family. My wife will cook, and I will be the host.

Are you married?

Yes

Has your relationship changed if you were married?

Actually, it is the same life whether you are married or not. It's just your signature on the paper.

Who are your favourite colleagues?

Mr. Gautier, Mr. Boone and Mr. De Landtsheer because they also play football.

What were your favourite subjects when you were a student yourself?

Sports chemistry all the languages especially French. I spoke French with my grandfather.

What did you like the least when you were still studying yourself?

Maths, when you had to apply the difficult concepts and proofs it was difficult. Later I also forgot them all because you don't need them anymore. When you were allowed to do arithmetics.

Thank you for listening!

The history of badminton

Badminton is often played as a casual outdoor activity in a yard or on a beach; formal games are played on a rectangular indoor court. Points are scored by striking the shuttlecock with the racquet and landing it within the other team's half of the court.

Its exact origin remains Games employing shuttlecocks have been played for centuries across Eurasia, but the modern game of badminton developed in the mid-19th century among the expatriate officers of British India as a variant of the earlier game of battledore and shuttlecock. ("Battledore" was an older term for "racquet".)

obscure. The name derives from the Duke of Beaufort's Badminton House in Gloucestershire, but why or when remains unclear. As early as 1860, a London toy dealer named Isaac Spratt published a booklet entitled Badminton Battledore - A New Game, but no copy is known to have survived. An 1863 article in The Cornhill Magazine describes badminton as "battledore and shuttlecock played with sides, across a string suspended some five feet from the ground".

The game originally developed in India among the British expatriates, where it was very popular by the 1870s. Ball badminton, a form of the game played with a wool ball instead of a shuttlecock, was being played in Thanjavur as early as the 1850s and was at first played interchangeably with badminton by the British, the woollen ball being preferred in windy or wet weather.

Early on, the game was also known as Poona or Poonah after the garrison town of Poona, where it was particularly popular and where the first rules for the game were drawn up in 1873. By 1875, officers returning home had started a badminton club in Folkestone. Initially, the sport was played with sides ranging from 1 to 4 players, but it was quickly established that games between two or four competitors worked the best. The shuttlecocks were coated with India rubber and, in outdoor play, sometimes weighted with lead. Although the depth of the net was of no consequence, it was preferred that it should reach the ground.

The sport was played under the Pune rules until 1887, when J. H. E. Hart of the Bath Badminton Club drew up revised regulations. In 1890, Hart and Bagnel Wild again revised the rules. The Badminton Association of England (BAE) published these rules in 1893 and officially launched the sport at a house called "Dunbar" in Portsmouth on 13 September.

The BAE started the first badminton competition, the All England Open Badminton Championships for gentlemen's doubles, ladies' doubles, and mixed doubles, in 1899. Singles competitions were added in 1900 and an England–Ireland championship match appeared in 1904. England, Scotland, Wales, Canada, Denmark, France, Ireland, the Netherlands, and New Zealand were the founding members of the International Badminton Federation in 1934, now known as the Badminton World Federation. India joined as an affiliate in 1936. The BWF now governs international badminton. Although initiated in England, competitive men's badminton has traditionally been dominated in Europe by Denmark.

Worldwide, Asian nations have become dominant in international competition. China, Denmark, Indonesia, Malaysia, India, South Korea, Taiwan (playing as 'Chinese Taipei') and Japan are the nations which have consistently produced world-class players in the past few decades, with China being the greatest force in men's and women's competition recently. Great Britain, where the rules of the modern game were codified, is not among the top powers in the sport, but has had significant Olympic and World success in doubles, especially mixed doubles. The game has also become a popular backyard sport in the United States.

Your monthly horoscope

Capricorn (Dec 22 – Jan 19): You're an overachiever and sensitive person. You may be hurt because of some things people said to you. Don't let that hurt you. Good things will come your way. Your perfect love match is a Leo.

Aquarius (Jan 20 – Feb 18): You're very clever, optimistic and kind. Because you're such an honest person, luck will come your way. Forgive that one person, because they may surprise you. You are very compatible with an Aries.

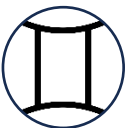

Pisces (Feb 19 – Mar 20): You're compassionate and very empathic. You're a people pleaser. You may feel obligated to listen to other people's problems. But this month you need to focus on yourself. This will be your month, go and relax a bit. You deserve it. Your perfect match is a Scorpio.

Aries (Mar 21 – Apr 19):
Your love match is an Aquarius. You are ambitious and bold. Challenging situations don't scare you. Don't let your insecurity about the exams get to you! Tell your friends you appreciate them.

The love of your life could be an Aquarius! You're impatient, but that won't bother you while studying, you got it! You are counting down to Christmas, maybe you can make brownies in fun shapes, like a 3D pinecone?

Cancer (Jun 21 – Jul 22):
Scorpio could be a good match for you! You're a bit of a bad at communication, but passionate about your work. Decorate a gingerbread house for Christmas!

Leo (Jul 23 – Aug 22):
A Sagittarius is maybe your soulmate!
You're very confident and born to be in the spotlights.
You can photograph your favourite things this month and make a collage!

Virgo (Aug 23 – Sep 22):
Taurus is a match for you!
You're a perfectionist and a logical thinker but you're self-critical too.
Watch some Christmas movies when you're done with the exams! Good luck!

Libra (Sep 23 – Oct 22): You're extremely agreeable and honest. You're very extroverted, so this month you will meet someone new. This person will have brown eyes and hair. Your perfect match is a Gemini.

Scorpio (Oct 23 – Nov 21): You aren't frightened easily and you're very confident. So don't stress out about the exams, you will pass it with flying colours. Treat yourself for once, you deserve it. Your perfect match is a Pisces.

Sagittarius (Nov 22 – Dec 21): You're very clever and loyal. You will receive something you have always wanted. When you're stressed you can make a nice evening walk. 2024 will be your year. Your perfect match is a Leo.

Say hello to big, fluffy, absolutely delicious cinnamon rolls packed with a cinnamon brown sugar filling and glazed with a vanilla cream.

Ingredients

For The Dough

500 grams of flour
10 grams of yeast
10 grams of salt
40 grams of sugar
270 ml milk
60 grams of butter
1 egg

For The Filling

90 gr butter, at room temperature
150 gr brown sugar
1½ tsp cinnamon powder

For The Glaze

100 gr cream cheese
50 gr butter, at room temperature
75 gr powdered sugar
1 tsp vanilla extract
2-3 tbsp milk

Cinnamon Rolls

🕒 ± 2 h 25 m

Method

Make the dough for the cinnamon rolls

Knead all ingredients for the dough - except the butter - into a smooth bread dough. Knead the dough for at least 10 minutes. You can do this by hand or with a mixer. Add the butter and knead it into the dough. Put the dough in a bowl, cover it with plastic wrap and let it rise for 1 hour in a warm place.

Make the filling

Put the butter, brown sugar and cinnamon in a bowl and beat it.

Bake the cinnamon rolls

Grease a baking pan with butter. Roll out the dough into a sheet about 30 x 50 centimeters. Brush the dough with the filling. Cut the roll into pieces and place the cinnamon rolls on their sides in rows in the baking pan. Cover the mold with plastic wrap and let the dough rise for another hour. Preheat the oven to 190 °C. Bake the cinnamon rolls for 25-30 minutes until they are golden brown and cooked. Let the cinnamon rolls cool when they come out of the oven.

Make the glaze for the cinnamon rolls

To complete the cinnamon rolls, brush the cooled cinnamon rolls with icing. For the icing, place the cream cheese, butter, powdered sugar and vanilla extract in a bowl and beat with a mixer. Add the milk until the frosting becomes thick. Brush the cinnamon rolls with the glaze.

The Best Christmas Movies

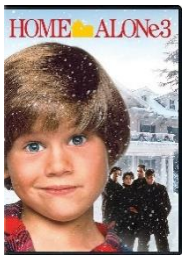

Home alone 1

Eight-year-old Kevin McAllister is accidentally left at home when his family goes on a Christmas holiday. Fortunately, downcast Kevin learns to take care of himself in a short time. In the process, he also takes on villains Harry and Marv. These two burglars have no defence against the clever traps Kevin has in store for them.

Home alone 2 lost in New York

Little Kevin was supposed to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents in Miami, but the boy gets on the wrong plane and lands in New York. He doesn't really know how to manage in this big city. Fortunately, he has his father's credit card in his pocket which immediately opens a lot of doors.

Home alone 3

An international gang has stolen a top-secret computer chip and then hidden it in a toy car. Due to a mistake at the airport, the little car ends up in the hands of eight-year-old Alex Pruitt, who is home alone because of chicken pox.

Home alone 4 taking back the house

Kevin decides to spend the Christmas holidays with his father at his new girlfriend Nathalie's villa. On Christmas Eve, however, the house is broken into. Luckily, Kevin has experience with burglars and crooks.

Elf

The Grinch

A grumpy Grinch makes plans to ruin Christmas for the entire Whoville village. Little girl Cindy-Lou is brave enough to climb to the Grinch's lair and convince him that Christmas is precisely a love fest.

It's a wonderful life

George Bailey lives in a small town and thinks he is just a boring guy. His guardian angel thinks very differently and shows through flashbacks of his life that he is quite special.

Klaus

A postman is sent to an icy northern town where he meets a toy maker called Klaus. Surely, this peculiar man looks a lot like Father Christmas.

We, the students of 2 LBC, have managed to arrange an interview with a professional football player. None other than the rising star of the Jupiler Pro League Noah Fadiga. In this report we give some explanation about who Noah Fadiga is and of course also about the interview we had with him.

Who is Noah Fadiga?

Noah Fadiga (born on 3 December 1999) is a professional footballer who plays as a right-back for Belgian club Gent. Born in Belgium, he represents Senegal internationally.

A youth product of Club Brugge, Fadiga joined Volendam on loan for the 2019-2020 season. He made his professional debut with Volendam in a 1-1 first division tie with Helmond Sport on 9 August 2020. Fadiga signed with Heracles Almelo in the Eredivisie on 19 July 2020. In the summer of 2023, Fadiga experienced heart irregularities and was not allowed to continue playing in France by the French Football Federation due to their zero tolerance policy in that respect, even though he received a clean bill of health by cardiologists. As a free agent, on 8 August 2023 he signed a three-year contract with Gent in Belgium, his father (Khalilou Fadiga) played for the club 15 years prior.

During the interview we asked him 15 questions about: his career, his father, and his national team Senegal

1)The first question we asked was: "Which team did you dream of playing for as a child?" He replied with: "I always dreamed of playing for Manchester United. When you see how many names they have raised in the football world, you could never go wrong playing for them."

2)After this we asked him if he had any pre game rituals. To this he simply replied "no, I don't believe in such things."

3)The third question we asked him was: "How do you deal with the pressure before important matches?" The answer to this was: "Very good actually, that's why we chose it. A job like this is not for everyone, and of course the competitions that require a lot of stress are really fun, I often really enjoy such competitions."

4) "Who was actually the toughest opponent you faced on the field?" "To be honest, I find every opponent a challenge, but if I really have to choose it would be the players like Messi, Neymar and Mbappe. I think it's a shame that I haven't had the opportunity to play against Ronaldo yet, but maybe that will come!" was his reply.

5) He was very enthusiastic about number five, the question is as follows; "How does it feel to play for the Senegal national team?" his answer was: "Besides the fact that it is a great honour, it is also a pleasure that I can represent my country at things like the Africa Cup, World Cup and so on."

6) When asked 'What would you like to do when your football career is over?' He had to think for a long time, but in the end his answer was: "I'm probably going to do something in the real estate business just like my mother."

7) He really didn't have to think about this question for long. "Where would you really like to play in your career?" The answer is: "The premier league of course, which professional footballer wouldn't want to play there!"

8) "And what is the atmosphere like around the club now?" "The atmosphere is great here! Everyone helps and supports each other, I think that is important at a club."

9) He also liked question 9 because he didn't have to think long about the question 'How does it feel to play against one of the best players, Sadio Mané?' He immediately replied: It is an honor and a pleasure to play with him. I also really look up to him, especially how he behaves. Even though we don't play in the same position, we still understand each other's position!"

10) When asked: "what are your goals for your football career?" he didn't know what to answer, he said: "I don't really know what I am going to do and what I want to achieve, but what I do know is that if I keep doing my best, I will show what I am worth. Time will tell."

11) For question eleven we asked him what was the most challenging thing about being a professional footballer. He replied: "The hardest thing is to stay consistent, to know how to deal with defeats and to keep pushing even when things aren't going as well. These are things that many professional football players have a hard time with."

12) "How many hours a week do you spend playing football?" He replied with: "I can't put a fixed number on that, what I can say is that it are a lot of hours. If you know that we have a match almost every 3 days, you can already start calculating."

13) We did not expect the answer he gave to this question. The question is as follows: "How do you look up to your father?" He simply replied with: "Like a son looks up to his father haha! But if you meant it with football, then I really look up to him. He has a pretty nice career, both at clubs and with the national team of Senegal. But when I think of my father, I don't immediately think of football. That is something that many find difficult to understand."

14) For us, the 14th question was really a question we wanted to know. The question is: "why did you choose to be a defender, why not an attacker like your father?" The answer he gave us is: "Everyone has their qualities, I am a wingback, which means I am a mix between an attacker and a defender."

15) The interview is coming to an end but there was one more question we wanted to ask him: "If you had to choose 1 trophy, which one would you like to win?" Here he replied with: "1 I can't choose just 1, I would love to win them all :), think more about Africa Cup, World Cup, Champions League, Ballon d'Or. It is really impossible to choose just 1!"

To conclude, we would like to thank Mr. Lauwerys for the opportunity he gave us and last but not least, we would also like to thank Noah Fadiga again for the opportunity he gave us. We know that it is not easy for a professional football player to just make time for a few brats who wanted to do something about football for this magazine. So we thank you from the bottom of our hearts. If you still want to take our football club quiz, please do so.

Santa's sing along!

In honor of the event of the year, we wanted to make sure that you aren't ruining the Christmas songs by gibbering the lyrics. Sing along with the best Christmas songs of all time! Good luck, singers! <3

You know you love us, XOXO!

And we're starting off strong with an all-time classic:

-Wham! – Last Christmas

Last Christmas I gave you my heart
But the very next day you gave it away (gave it away)
This year, to save me from tears
I'll give it to someone special (special)

➔ x2

Once bitten and twice shy
I keep my distance, but you still catch my eye
Tell me baby, do you recognize me?
Well, it's been a year, it doesn't surprise me

Happy Christmas, I wrapped it up and sent it
With a note saying "I love you", I meant it
Now I know what a fool I've been
But if you kissed me now, I know you'd fool me again

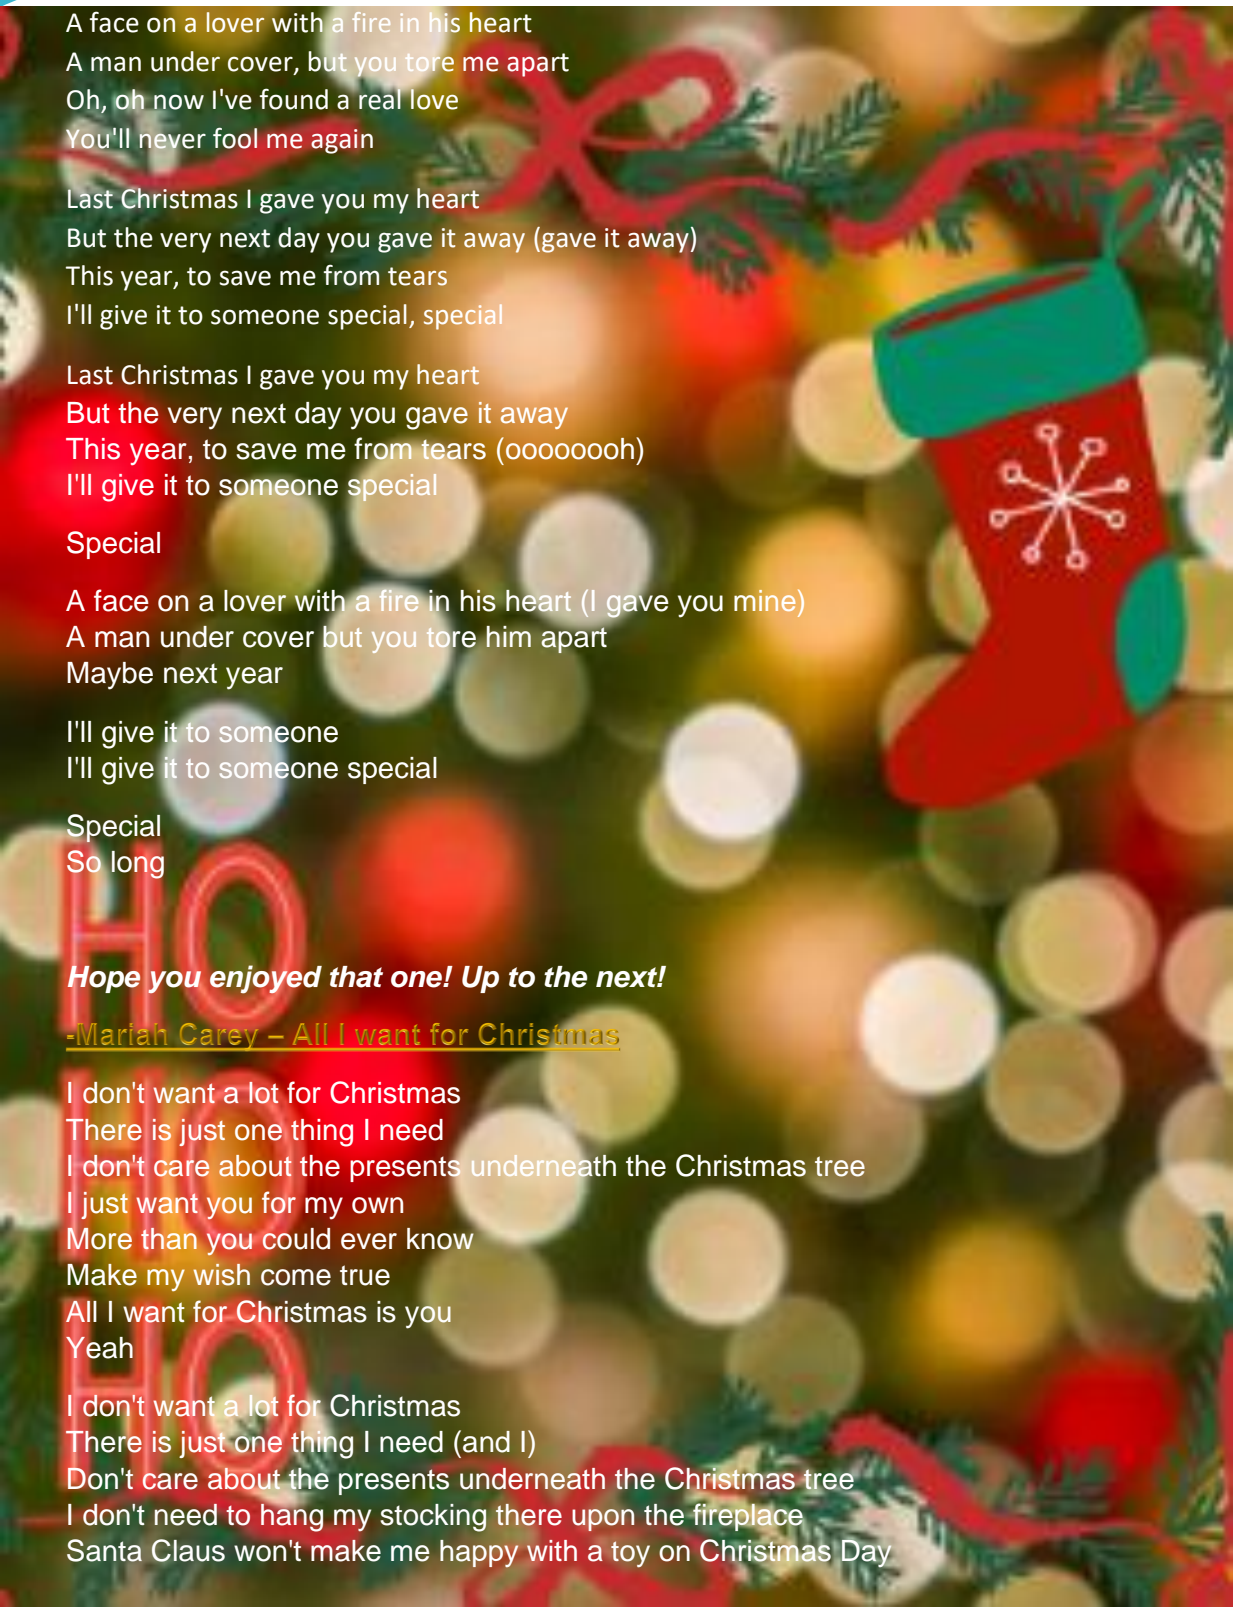

Last Christmas I gave you my heart
But the very next day you gave it away (you gave it away)
This year, to save me from tears
I'll give it to someone special (special)

➔ x2

Ooh
Oh, oh, baby

A crowded room, friends with tired eyes
I'm hiding from you and your soul of ice
My God, I thought you were someone to rely on Me? I guess I was a shoulder to cry on

A face on a lover with a fire in his heart
A man under cover, but you tore me apart
Oh, oh now I've found a real love
You'll never fool me again
Last Christmas I gave you my heart
But the very next day you gave it away (gave it away)
This year, to save me from tears
I'll give it to someone special, special

Last Christmas I gave you my heart
But the very next day you gave it away
This year, to save me from tears (oooooooooh)
I'll give it to someone special

Special

A face on a lover with a fire in his heart (I gave you mine)
A man under cover but you tore him apart
Maybe next year

I'll give it to someone
I'll give it to someone special

Special
So long

Hope you enjoyed that one! Up to the next!

-Mariah Carey – All I want for Christmas

I don't want a lot for Christmas
There is just one thing I need
I don't care about the presents underneath the Christmas tree
I just want you for my own
More than you could ever know
Make my wish come true
All I want for Christmas is you
Yeah

I don't want a lot for Christmas
There is just one thing I need (and I)
Don't care about the presents underneath the Christmas tree
I don't need to hang my stocking there upon the fireplace
Santa Claus won't make me happy with a toy on Christmas Day

I just want you for my own
More than you could ever know
Make my wish come true
All I want for Christmas is you
You, baby

Oh, I won't ask for much this Christmas
I won't even wish for snow (and I)
I'm just gonna keep on waiting underneath the mistletoe
I won't make a list and send it to the North Pole for Saint Nick
I won't even stay awake to hear those magic reindeer click

'Cause I just want you here tonight
Holding on to me so tight
What more can I do?
Oh, baby, all I want for Christmas is you
You, baby

Oh-oh, all the lights are shining so brightly everywhere (so brightly, baby)
And the sound of children's laughter fills the air (oh, oh, yeah)
And everyone is singing (oh, yeah)
I hear those sleigh bells ringing
Santa, won't you bring me the one I really need? (Yeah, oh)
Won't you please bring my baby to me?

Oh, I don't want a lot for Christmas
This is all I'm asking for
I just wanna see my baby standing right outside my door

Oh, I just want you for my own
More than you could ever know
Make my wish come true
Oh, baby, all I want for Christmas is you
You, baby

All I want for Christmas is you, baby
All I want for Christmas is you, baby
All I want for Christmas is you, baby
All I want for Christmas (all I really want) is you, baby
All I want (I want) for Christmas (all I really want) is you, baby

And for the last one we are going in with some girly pop!

Ariana Grande - Santa tell me

Santa, tell me if you're really there
Don't make me fall in love again
If he won't be here next year
Santa, tell me if he really cares
'Cause I can't give it all away
If he won't be here next year

Feeling Christmas all around
And I'm trying to play it cool
But it's hard to focus when I see him walkin' 'cross the room
"Let it Snow" is blasting out
But I won't get in the mood
I'm avoiding every mistletoe until I know
It's true love that he thinks of
So next Christmas
I'm not all alone, boy

Santa, tell me if you're really there
Don't make me fall in love again
If he won't be here next year
Santa, tell me if he really cares
'Cause I can't give it all away
If he won't be here next year

I've been down this road before
Fell in love on Christmas night (ooh, babe)
But on New Year's Day, I woke up and he wasn't by my side
Now I need someone to hold
Be my fire in the cold (yeah, yeah)
But it's hard to tell if this is just a fling
Or if it's true love that he thinks of
So next Christmas
I'm not all alone, babe

Santa, tell me if you're really there
Don't make me fall in love again
If he won't be here next year
Santa, tell me if he really cares
'Cause I can't give it all away
If he won't be here next year

Oh, I wanna have him beside me like oh-oh-oh
On the 25th by that fire place, oh-oh-oh
But I don't want a new broken heart
This year I've got to be smart
Ooh, baby
(Santa, tell me, Santa, tell me)
If he will be, if he will be here (Santa, tell me, Santa, tell me)
Oh-oh-oh

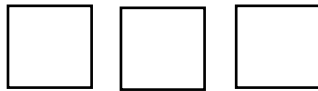

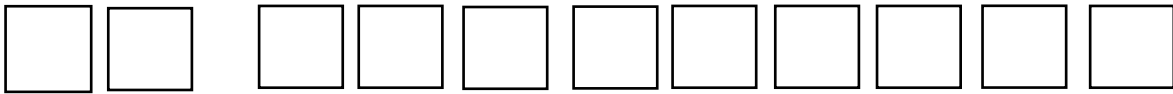

Santa, tell me if you're really there (Santa, tell me, 'cause I really care)
Don't make me fall in love again
If he won't be here next year
Santa, tell me if he really cares (tell me, tell me, boy)
'Cause I can't give it all away
If he won't be here next year

Santa, tell me if you're really there (tell me, tell me, baby)
Don't make me fall in love again
If he won't be here next year (if he won't be, if he won't be here)
Santa, tell me if he really cares (tell me, do you care?)
'Cause I can't give it all away
If he won't be here next year

Have fun singing! Xoxo
